| 5 | 10,437 | -1,670 | -1.6% | 1,087 |
| Citywide | 448,834 | -4,877 | -1.1% | |

| District 1 Racial Makeup | | | | Citywide | |
|-----------------------------------|-------|----------|-------|----------------------------------|--|
| | Black | Hispanic | White | Asian, Pac. Islander, Am. Indian | |
| 2010 Census Voting Age Pop. (VAP) | 57% | 32% | 12% | 2% | |
| 2010 Census Reg. | 52% | 30% | 14% | 2% | |

Shame on the NAACP for supporting redistricting proposal that moves Overtown to D1.

OFFICE OF THE CHAIRWOMAN
CHRISTINE KING

iamchristineking and miamicra

iamchristineking @NAACP the CONSTITUTION allows for and case law encourages keeping communities of interest together. Overtown has had its share of government intervention which has almost decimated our community.

Overtown is part of a larger community of interests which includes Liberty City, Little Haiti, Wynwood, and the Upper East Side. We share the same needs for affordable and workforce housing, infrastructure improvements, and economic development.

#WTF #SaveOurOvertown
#SaveOurCommunities #IllBeDamned!!!!
